NOTICE TO VOTERS

It has been brought to my attention that rumors have been willfully circulated in Appomattox County that I was 'brought out' as a candidate for the House of Delegates as a part of a "plan" to defeat my friend Mr. Charles T. Moses who is a candidate for State Senate. This rumor is so absurd that I have hesitated to give it public recognition, but not wishing any voter to be under misapprehension, I wish now to correct it. I became a candidate for the House of Delegates solely because hundreds of voters in Buckingham County first, and then in Appomattox County voluntarily signed petitions urging me to run and pledging me their support. I have no motive other than serve the people and wish to correct any rumor that I would be so base as to lend my name to an effort to harm a friend. I have and shall conduct an active Campaign in my own behalf and invite the support of the voters on the basis of my stand on moral and governmental issues. A vote for Calvin H. Robinson for the House of Delegates in no possible way effects a vote for Mr. Moses as that is another contest.

CALVIN H. ROBINSON.

How your MONEY WORKS FOR YOU IN A Checking Account

When you put your money in a savings account you get interest on it. In a checking account you get service for it—and let the bank draw the interest. In return for this interest the bank gives you privileges worth far more to you than the interest itself.

When you maintain a balance commensurate with your use of your checking account privileges, the bank will be reimbursed for the expense of serving you. Otherwise, the bank may properly look to you to meet this expense.

Money in a checking account is an investment that pays you real dividends.

Lady Took Cardui When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui as I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. H. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It seemed before I had taken half a bottle of Cardui I was stronger and was soon up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

What is the yardstick for a cigarette...

Take mildness for one thing—how does it measure up for mildness? Chesterfields are milder—not flat or insipid, of course, but with a pleasing flavor.

Then take taste for another thing—does it have plenty of taste? Chesterfields taste better—not strong but just right.

In other words, They Satisfy—that's my yardstick for a cigarette.

Byrd Explains AAA Stand In Letter

Washington, July 24-Senator Byrd issued today the following statement with respect to his position on the AAA legislation:

The Agricultural Adjustment Act was passed upon the principle of voluntary cooperation between the farmers and the government or the extent at least that seventy-five per cent of the producers of a given product would approve the marketing plan or licensing provisions.

I voted for the original AAA and for tobacco legislation, as both provided for approval by a substantial majority of the producers of a given commodity.

The legislation now pending establishes what is virtually a universal licensing system for all agricultural products. If enacted into law this licensing system can be imposed in certain instances without obtaining a majority of the producers of a given product. The licenses are called "arbitrary" but the effect is the same. In fact, the majority of the handlers of a given product can impose a licensing system upon the producer, and the provision actually permits the handlers to fix minimum prices for the producers.

When we recall the varying conditions in this country and the divergency of interest between the producers of different sections, the danger of this can be readily recognized. The farmer himself can be individually licensed without an opportunity to vote if he prepares for market a product grown on his own land and thereby becomes a distributor. Voluntary action by the farmers is one thing and arbitrary action by the government is another.

I want to preserve the principles of the right of the farmer to express himself, to embraced in the original farm legislation, and to this end have offered amendments to make it clear that no licensing provision can be imposed without the approval of at least seventy five per cent of the farmers producing a given commodity.

Tobacco and other basic commodities have special legislation.

Analysis PWA Loans

Richmond, July 24-Public Works Administration officials at Richmond have prepared a new analysis of the advantages of publics works loans to Virginia committees, according to THE COMMONWEALTH, monthly publication of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce. Using, for the purpose of easy comparison, a construction project which will cost $100,000, PWA points out that $45,000 is supplied as an outright gift, while the remainder is loaned at 4 per cent on annual serial bonds, repayable over a period of 25 years.

"The total cost of the project, including principal and interest, will be $182,500. The municipality will have the $100,00 project constructed now, get the benefit of its expenditure at once have the use of the projecy for twenty five years before the project fully paid for, and still be the gainer by $17,500.
